

ENGL 100: Quoting Activity

Instructions:

- First see the “Step-by-Step Tips for Setting up and Following up Quotations” (1. Set up; 2. Weave & Cite; 3. Paraphrase if needed; 4. Comment on the quote).
- Then try going through the steps with at least one of the quotes below.
- You may find that each quote after the first one becomes a little more challenging to work with than the one that came before it.

1. Here’s a quote from page 2 of Kohn’s essay:

“Grades create a preference for the easiest possible task”

2. Here’s a quote from page 1 of Dweck’s essay:

“Some hold a fixed mindset, in which they see abilities as fixed traits”

3. Here’s a quote from page 17 of Cox’s essay:

“I did not feel comfortable approaching him about anything”

4. Here’s a quote from page 37 of the essay by Nagaoka et al.:

“This work has value for me”
