

Name _____

MISS REPRESENTATION QUESTIONS

(fill out this side for credit; please continue onto the back if you need more space)

1. Describe some gender stereotypes. For example, what seems to be the feminine ideal that women might feel pressured to attain? What might be the masculine ideal men might feel pressured to attain? How might these stereotypes limit girls and boys?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

2. Explain in your own words what “objectification” means. Then explain in your own words how advertising is connected with stereotypes and objectification.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

3. What contradictions do you see between real girls/women around you and the way they are most typically represented in the media?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

4. In what ways might the media trivialize women in power?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

5. What did you take away from the film that seemed the most meaningful for you? For example, what hit you the hardest, affected you the most, surprised you, or taught you something new?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---