Items most worth attention:	Essay #1 Goals / Desired Outcomes
	Does the essay provide clear focus? • Does the opening paragraph introduce a clear main point (about a text) and let readers know that personal connections will go with it? • Do easy-to-find topic sentences effectively signal the main point of each paragraph? Are all paragraphs focused and unified?	FOCUS
	Is organization clear, smooth, and effective? • Are quotes smoothly handled? Are there smooth transitions within and between all paragraphs? Are tight connections maintained by avoiding repetition and by keeping related ideas together?	FLOW
	Is the essay supported with well-developed paragraphs? • Does it include sufficient ideas and well-selected examples? Does it explain and illustrate ideas with accuracy and specificity? Do vivid and engaging details add powerful impact to the support? • Does it include at least two quotes from the author selected? Does it have an engaging title, introduction, and conclusion? • Is the title catchy, and does it signal a specific topic? • Does the introduction have a hook, and does the conclusion leave readers feeling like the topic matters to them?	CONTENT
	Does the essay look clear and accurate in its presentation? • Does it follow MLA format? Is the font 12-point Times New Roman? Are the margins 1" exactly? Is the essay double spaced (without unnecessary extra line spaces, particularly between paragraphs)? ➢ Is it carefully proofread for spelling, punctuation, grammar, and effective word choice? (Despite strengths in other areas, difficulty with language may prevent work from earning a passing mark.)	CLARITY
